

We offer the following Workplace Services services:

Biomechanical Assessment

Biomechanical assessment results help inform your comprehensive treatment plan.

Industrial and Occupational Rehabilitation

IRG's industrial rehabilitation program is comprehensive.

Work Conditioning

South Sound Physical Therapy's work conditioning program is designed to accelerate your recovery process and get you back on the job.

Ergonomic Analysis

Minimize your risk of injury and maximize productivity at work.

Industrial Athlete

Performance, recovery, and mentality.

Work Hardening

A structured, goal-oriented program designed to return the employee to work.

Functional Capacity Evaluations

Maximizing care that is greatly needed when getting an injured worker back to their job.